

Why I Ride

There are so many reasons to be part of Pedal to Resettle 2020, but we understand you might be looking for inspiration when deciding what to share with your networks. Why not consider one of our “Why I Ride” statements.

Sometimes less is more. A simple statement can be powerful. Or, maybe one of these statements inspires you to create your own or share more of your story! Whenever you post to Instagram or Facebook, be sure to tag World Relief Sacramento!

I ride for the thousands of refugees who have come to Sacramento in search of safety and belonging

I ride for the love of cycling and new neighbors

I ride for lasting change in our community

I ride to build communities of welcome

I ride in support of refugee resilience

I ride for refugee empowerment

I ride for refugees who served alongside the U.S. military at the risk of their family's safety

I ride for refugee job seekers beginning their careers in the U.S.

I ride for refugee women who were denied access to education in their home country and are learning English for the first time

I ride for refugees with dreams of opening their own businesses

I ride for refugee mothers learning how to access the U.S. healthcare system to provide for their families

I ride for refugee youth programs that support my youngest new neighbors

I ride for refugee youth in need of mentorship and tutoring

I ride for asylum seekers fleeing persecution

I ride to reunite families

I ride for Dreamers
