HISTORY OF REFUGEES IN FOX VALLEY

Over the last 10 years the Fox Valley office has welcomed over 1,000 refugees into the Fox Valley. Our new neighbors come from a variety of countries such as the DRC, Myanmar, Afghanistan and others.

Our office was first opened in Oshkosh Wisconsin in 2012. Over time we expanded to serving clients in all of the Fox Valley from Appleton to Oshkosh, and have offices in both locations.

I have been a volunteer with World Relief for five months. My Afghan friend told me that he was nervous to come to America because he heard from many people that Americans did not want immigrants here. Through our friendship he said he learned it was just the opposite. We were so kind, welcoming and supportive. Our friendship goes both ways, as well as through our families. We are so blessed to have this opportunity to show other cultures we welcome them with love.
